MYSTERIOUS.—Yesterday afternoon a man was seen sauntering, in a somewhat suspicious manner, along the north side of High street, eyeing everything in the windows. His appearance and manner excited some suspicion, and he was watched until he entered V. S. Barker's Cheap Cash Store. After a short time, he came out, having under his coat a bundle of dry goods of various kinds. The persons who had been watching him felt sure that he had stolen them, and began to question him, and their suspicions were more than confirmed when he stated the low price he had paid for them, and he was taken back to the store to be confronted by the proprietor. On investigation, the fellow's story was found to be correct, and he departed, highly indignant that he should be suspected of stealing goods because he had purchased them at the very low prices at which everything is sold at that establishment.

A Row.—An affair of a serious character occurred at one of our principal hotels a few nights since. A certain bar-tender who claims to be a "white gentleman of French descent" undertook to "clear the house" of some poor white Americans who would not associate with him. In this he was aided by the landlord who thought that his "French" bar-tender was in the right and the poor white folks in the wrong. Chairs flew in every direction; one entering the "eye" of one of the assailed. By this time pistols were brought to bear against the landlord and his "French" enunch which caused them to cease. It is a great country where white men must be imposed on by "Frenchmen" born in Africa.

RECEIPT IN FULL.—A German being required to give a receipt in full, after much mental effort, produced the following: "I ish full, I wants no more monish. "JOHN SCHWACKHAMMEL."

This is not the case with E. J. Mills, on South-west corner of the "Diamond," Ebensburg, Pa. He wants more money, but will give more clothing—such as coats, vests, pantaloons, &c., for the same amount of money, than any other store in Ebensburg. Give him a call.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.—We give the President's Message in full to our readers. Being of great length it has crowded out all other matter. We have not the room nor time to speak of its merits. The various subjects are treated in an able and frank manner. His views on the restoration question remain unchanged and his argument cannot fail to carry conviction to the mind of every reasonable man. We bespeak for it a careful perusal by all our readers.

PREPARE FOR WINTER.—The way to save money is to get your work done at R. H. Singer's Smith shop, near the Foundry. Now is the time to get your sled or sleigh ironed, ready for the winter. The time for sharpening is near at hand, and Mr. Singer is preparing nails and shoes, so as to be able to accommodate his customers on short notice. Bring on your work, and "greenbacks" and go away rejoicing.

APOLOGY.—We owe our readers an apology for not issuing the paper as usual on Thursday. A supply of printing paper shipped in the beginning of last week failed to reach us until Wednesday of this week. We will be more punctual in future.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Richard Humphrey, of this place, while engaged in moving some logs at Barker's saw mill in the East end of town, to-day, had his leg broken immediately above the ankle.

Don't fail to read the new advertisement.

A Card. Editor of SENTINEL.—Dear Sir: An article appeared in your last issue, styling me as "master of ceremonies," and insinuating that the "crowd" took "oysters and whisky" from the "dead man." I will just say for myself I did not partake of either "oysters" or "whisky," except at my own expense, which I can have several persons to testify to, who met me immediately after, at the "M'Breen House;" and as to "master of ceremonies," it should be conferred on one more deserving. I would suggest T. W. Shoemaker or John M'Mullin. Yours, &c., MARTIN SANDERS.

MARRIED.—On Thursday evening, Dec. 6th, by Ephraim Crum Esq., Mr. Joseph Wherry of Ebensburg and Miss Susie Plummer of Summerhill township. No cards.

On Sunday, Dec. 2d, by Rev. T. Hackert, Mr. David Kinney of Wilmore and Miss Angeline Leckey of Summerhill twp.

NEW FIRM.—We understand that our old friend Isaac Wike and Ex. Treasurer of this county has associated himself with Dr. Ludwig of Summitville, this county, in the Drug business. Isaac's popularity will certainly increase the Doctor's business. Success attend them.

DIED.—On Sunday last, after a brief illness, JAMES YOUNG, of this place, aged 14 years.

DOCTOR SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC.—This medicine, invented by Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, is intended to dissolve the food and make it into chyme, the first process of digestion. By cleansing the stomach with Schenck's Modrake Pills, the Tonic soon restores the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before using it will be easily digested. Consumption cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the Seaweed Tonic and three or four boxes of the Modrake Pills will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia.

Dr. Schenck makes professional visits in New York, Boston, and at his principal Office in Philadelphia every week. See daily papers of each place, or his pamphlet on consumption for his days for visitation. Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of Dr. J. L. Brailer in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers, price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU. HELMBOLD'S BUCHU. HELMBOLD'S BUCHU.

THE ONLY KNOWN REMEDY FOR DIABETES,

Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Catarrh of the Bladder, Strangury or Painful Urinating. For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of Helmbold's Buchu will relieve you.

Physicians and Others, PLEASE NOTICE.

I Make no secret of ingredients. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubeb, and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, prepared racy and according to rules of PHARMACY AND CHEMISTRY.

These ingredients are known as the most valuable Diuretics afforded.

A DURETIC Is that which acts upon the kidneys.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU ACTS GENTLY.

Is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action.

FOR THE SATISFACTION OF ALL. See Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the U. S., of which the following is a correct copy:

Buchu—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, its taste bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, Chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Strabid Irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Diseases of the Prostate, and Retention of the Inconsequence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION. See Professor Dewee's valuable works on the Practice of Physic.

See Remarks made by the celebrated Dr. Physic, of Philadelphia. See any and all Standard works on Medicine.

FROM THE Largest Manufacturing Chemist IN THE WORLD. I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold, he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise. WM. WEIGHTMAN, (Firm of Powers & Weightman,) Manufacturing Chemists, Ninth and Brown Sts., Philadelphia.

[From the Phila. Ev. Bulletin, March 10.] We are gratified to hear of the continued success, in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist. His store, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 230 feet deep, and five stories high. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks favorably of the merit of his articles. He retains his Office and Laboratory in this city, which are also model establishments of their class.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are GENUINE PREPARATIONS.

And, knowing that the intelligent refrain from using anything pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self styled Doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physician's simple prescription, much less competent to prepare pharmaceutical preparations. THESE PARTIES RESORT to various means of effecting sales, such as copying parts of advertisements of popular remedies, and finishing with certificates. The Science of Medicine stands SIMPLE, PURE, and MAJESTIC,—having Fact for its Basis, Induction for its Pillar, Truth alone for its Capital.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

Health is most important; and the afflicted should not use an advertised medicine, or any remedy, unless its contents or ingredients are known to others besides the manufacturer, or until they are satisfied of the qualification of the party so offering.
